The Albertson's Boise Open is a professional golf tournament held at Hillcrest Country Club every year in September. Tournament organizers invite local non-profits to share in the proceeds of this event by selling tickets and sharing in a pool of money to be donated. Before you write this off as "one more thing I have to sell", listen to how it works:

1. Pay your club dues by buying tickets to the Boise Open instead of writing a check directly to Idaho Rush.
    a. For all eligible online registrations (PAKS, Recreation, Select, Select-High School and Competitive), just leave the drop-down answer set to "Yes". There's nothing more you need to do.
    b. For Competitive dues beyond the initial $150 online registration, click the logo below and BE SURE to list Idaho Rush Soccer/CYSA as your charity of choice.
2. You will get tickets to the Albertson's Boise Open in the mail and you get credit for paying your club dues.
3. When you get your tickets, you can use them to go to the tournament or give them to business clients or friends. You can even resell the tickets at face value and recover your club dues, effectively playing soccer at Idaho Rush for free! If you're not interested in going to the golf tournament, that's fine, too. You don't need to attend to have your purchase credited toward your club dues.
4. The money you spend on golf tickets eventaully comes back to Idaho Rush through the Tickets Fore Charity program run by the golf tournament. There's nothing you need to do to make this happen. We take care of it all.
5. After the golf tournament, Idaho Rush shares in a $50,000 kitty split by all of the non-profits selling tickets. The more money we use to buy golf tickets, the larger our share of the kitty! Last year we raised more than $5,000 this way, money we used to keep your registration fees as low as possible.

The bottom line is this: Use the money you would have spent on club dues to buy tickets to the Boise Open and Idaho Rush will get more FREE MONEY from the Tickets For Charity program. Participation costs you NOTHING, and the more people that participate, the better able we are to serve you.
