

Idaho Rush inducted another two members to its DREAM Club, which honors players who are Devoted, Reliable, Enthusiastic, Accountable and Mentors. Aaron O'Harra and Adam O'Keefe have shown club loyalty during the past eight years and become great role models for our young players. The DREAM Club rewards players who play their entire competitive career at Idaho Rush, and inductees receive a small scholarship toward their first year of college. Click here to read more about both Aaron and Adam experiences as Rush players.

For full details on how to qualify for the Dream Scholarship click here